

CCADP 2021 Summer Leadership Academy (Pilot)

Overview:

The core mission of CCADP is “to advance the welfare of all Chinese descents in American higher education administration through promoting professional collaboration, career development, and leadership and management skills enhancement.” The Summer Leadership Academy is designed to add another key component to the organization’s year-round programming that currently includes the CCADP Distinguished Speaker Series and the CCADP Annual Forum.

Program Goals:

- Develop and enhance participants’ core academic leadership competencies;
- Assist participants to secure and succeed in leadership positions at the next level;
- Establish a lasting pipeline to cultivate future Chinese/Asian American Deans, Provosts and Presidents.

Who Should Attend:

Past, current and prospective CCADP members who are serving or having served in leadership roles such as Chair/Director, Assistant/Associate/Vice Dean or above.

What Can You Expect?

- Workshops led by senior executives from top search firms in the country;
- Panel discussions led by senior university leaders such as Presidents, Provosts and Deans;
- Networking and organic peer support/mentorship;
- As a participant of the pilot program, you are expected to provide feedback and help build a premier leadership program for Chinese Americans in higher education.

Cost for Participation:

Free. Registration is required.

Format:

Due to the impact of the pandemic, the pilot program will be conducted via Zoom this summer. There will be two 1-hour Zoom sessions:

Session I: Effective Leadership

Time: June 3rd, 11:00 am – 12:00 pm ET

Moderator: Hanchen Huang

Panelists: Mei Wei, Amy Zeng, and Ming Li

Click here to RSVP / Join Zoom meeting

Session II: The Path to Deanship | Isaacson Miller Insights

Time: June 7th, 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm ET

Speakers: Cati Mitchell-Crossley, John Muckle, David Bellshaw

Click here to RSVP / Join Zoom meeting